

Levi Sadr
Director of Government Affairs

Mr. Sadr brings in-depth experience in Government Relations to the table. As the former VSO legislative liaison with The Veterans Education Project (VEP), Mr. Sadr helped direct nationwide grassroots outreach to ensure the protection of benefits for all members of the military, and veterans.

He was also responsible for monitoring all legislative activities on Capitol Hill, with a focus on oversight and implementation of policy. His day-to-day responsibilities included developing new relationships with key stakeholders on Capitol Hill, maintaining relations with other VSOs and serving as an expert witness to both congressional and federal offices.

Mr. Sadr's portfolio includes legislative issues related to the National Guard, veterans, healthcare, suicide prevention, and higher education.

Mr. Sadr is a proud military spouse.
