

INTERNATIONAL AUXILIARY
Non Commissioned Officers Association of the United States of America
P.O. Box 33790, San Antonio, TX 78265

TO: Local Chapter, International Auxiliary
FROM: NCOA International Board of Directors
SUBJECT: Local Auxiliary Trustees Oath of Office and Code of Ethics

All trustees/officers of local Auxiliary Chapters must be duly sworn into office. A copy of the Oath, signed by the elected/appointed trustee and the person administering it, and a signed and affirmed copy of the Code of Ethics, must be on permanent file at NCOA International Headquarters.

International Auxiliary Trustees, at the chapter level, should be given the Oath by the Auxiliary Chapter Chairman or other Auxiliary/Chapter official, at a regularly scheduled membership meeting, at an Executive Committee meeting, or during an Auxiliary/Chapter social function. The Oath may also be given by an International Headquarters representative or by a military commander of the Armed Forces.

It is important that the Oath be administered in a dignified manner during proper ceremonies and that the occasion be publicized by story and photograph wherever and whenever possible.

Once an Auxiliary Officer has served for period of one year, they can be nominated as a Permanent Trustee. If approved, they remain a Permanent Trustee so long as they maintain active membership in the International Auxiliary. As these individuals travel, it is possible that an Auxiliary may find a number of Permanent Trustees on their membership rolls in addition to those who comprise the Auxiliary Chapter Executive Committee. Should this occur, the Auxiliary Chapter Chairman should offer them "Ex-Officio" positions as advisors to the duly-elected Board of Officers. A Permanent Trustee does not automatically become an officer of the local Auxiliary Chapter. They must be officially elected to one of the four officer positions by the general membership of the Auxiliary Chapter.

We appreciate your cooperation in this matter. Please complete the attached Oath of Office and Code of Ethics without delay and mail them to Chapter Services Manager, NCOA International Headquarters, P.O. Box 33790, San Antonio, Texas 78265.

We extend our personal congratulations, and those of all members of the NCOA International Board of Directors and the International Auxiliary Board of Directors, upon your appointment as a key representative of our great Association.

STRENGTH IN UNITY! ®
